

6-Week Summer Program

Teacher Ranger

Application Deadline April 7th!

Become a Teacher-Ranger and participate in the Teacher to Ranger program that immerses educators in their local national parks. After working as a park staff, Teacher-Rangers return to their schools and deliver lessons about national parks.

During National Park Week in April, Teacher-Rangers across the country conduct presentations at their schools highlighting their park ranger experiences.

What does a Teacher-Ranger do during the 6 weeks? beginning June 16

- Develop and review curriculum materials for teacher led programs in the Santa Monica Mountains
- Work in the park's interagency visitor center, Satwiwa Native American Indian Culture Center or the park's Community Outreach Office in Los Angeles
- Create activities and programs for children and families
- Conduct guided hikes and programs

Teacher-Rangers receive a $375 per week reimbursement. Teacher-Rangers work 40 hours per week, including some weekends.

Teacher-Ranger Care Butler highlights the adaptations of our native plants in Solstice Canyon.

For an application form and instructions on how to apply visit:

[www.nps.gov/samo/forteachers/
professionaldevelopment.htm](http://www.nps.gov/samo/forteachers/professionaldevelopment.htm)

For general information about this program, contact
Barbara Applebaum@nps.gov,
805-370-2304 or
Julie Fonseca de Borges@nps.gov, 805-370-2311.

